Quotes from 4th Graders

- Responsibility is important; tell them some of the things your kid will be responsible for (not blurting out, raising you hand, caring for your laptop, changing classes and keeping up with your stuff/binder, homework).
- It's a big school, but teachers walk students places a lot at the beginning of the year. Ask your teacher if you're nervous about getting lost.
- Make sure you come to locker night; don't wait until the first day of school to let your kid see our building for the first time.
- No matter what teacher you get, you're going to learn a lot from them.
